

FRIENDS THINK LEAHY
WILL BE FINE ENVOY

They Say He Has No Illusions
About Treaties, Possessions
Cold, Logical Mind.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP).—
Admiral William Daniel Leahy, seen by President Roosevelt as country's Ambassador to what's t of France, has no illusions out modern diplomacy.

The doughty, retired sea-fighter side that plain on several occasions while holding down the navy's top-ranking post as chief of naval operations.

"To expect modern diplomacy
to guard the property of a nation to expect too much," he said on an occasion. "To believe in the efficiency of pacts and treaties to protect us against international brigandage is a dream of visionaries."

On the other hand, officers who served with him are quick to attribute to him many qualities which they assert make him eminently fitted for the task of guiding the United States' relations with the Vichy government.

Coldly Logical.
A "cold logician," they call him,
who is well-versed outside his profession, particularly in the field of world economics, and with a facility for grasping details.

It was no mere coincidence, his friends insist, that President Roosevelt picked Leahy for the Vichy assignment after Gen. John J.
Pershing's physician forbade him to risk accepting it. When Leahy went to Puerto Rico as Governor in June, 1939, it was in something of the role of a "trouble-shooter"
and informed sources assert that he was shaping up, he may be called upon to play the same role at Vichy.

Leahy was known in the fleet as one of the navy's ablest executives and strictest disciplinarians. Officers who served under him, however, insist there was nothing of the martinet about him.

Got in Spotter's Way.
There's a story in naval circles,
for instance, of an exasperated gun-pointer aboard the battleship New Mexico who had reason to appreciate Leahy's tolerance.

During gunnery practice, so the story goes, the crew in one of the turrets near the quarterdeck had been greatly bothered by officers and men walking in front of the gun-sight at crucial moments.

Finally, when another obstruction blocked the sight, the gun-pointer bellowed:
"Get the hell away from that sight."

The "obstruction" was Capt.
Leahy, the battleship's commanding officer. After the customary naval apologies had been extended by the officer in charge of the gun, together with a diplomatic foreword of the crew's earlier troubles, Leahy dismissed the incident with a gruff "Don't let it happen again."
There is no record, though, that he ever blocked another gunsight.

Has Many Decorations.
Beetle-browed and baldish at 65, Leahy's face still stamps him as a sea-dog and his decorations are a chronicle of this country's wars, major and minor, since he entered the Naval Academy back in 1894.

Born in Hampton, Va., May 4, 1875, Leahy as a boy had an abiding interest in the military history of the Civil War as a result of his grandfather's participation in it.
Early in his life he wanted an army career and after being graduated from high school at Ashland, Wis., he sought an appointment to the United States Military Academy. His Congressman informed him, however, that he had no appointments open at West Point, but would be happy to nominate him to the Naval Academy.

Leahy admits now he's glad things turned out that way—especially since he climaxed his naval career by reaching the navy's highest office.

PLOT TO SEIZE $440,000 ARMY PAYROLL REPORTED

Extra Troops, Police, Deputies and FBI Agents Guard Cash After Machine Gun Holdup Tip.

SALINAS, Cal., Nov. 30 (AP).—
A reported plot to steal the $440-000 payroll at Fort Ord brought out many guns and guards today.

Sheriff Alex. Bordage was warned by police to be on the lookout for a neatly dressed, swarthy man with accomplices carrying golf bags and conceal machine guns. Other warnings went to the army encampment.

The army, the Sheriff's staff, city police, military police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation hastily dispatched extra guards to watch the cash arriving from San Francisco to pay Seventh Division troops and WPA workers.

The money was passed out without incident.

Los Angeles police said the came from a suspect arrested in connection with a Chicago gang killing.

MRS. MARGARET HAZLE DIES; BENEFICENT WAR VETERANS

Non-Civic Award in Detroit for Aid in Finding Jobs, and Served in Cleveland Hospital.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 30 (AP).— Mrs. Margaret Hazle, 68 years old, formerly of Detroit, died last night after a two-year illness.

Her husband, John A. Hazle, newspaper man, said Mrs. Hazle won civic recognition in Detroit for her efforts to find jobs for thousands of demobilized and jobless World War soldiers in the winter of 1919-20, and administered a city fund for the soldiers.

Refused by a unit of army nurses because of her age, Mrs. Hazle became civilian supervisor of No. 1
Park Military Hospital at Cleveland
in the World War.

Carnival Tea Dance For Dorothy Kamp At Woman's Club

A TEA dance-carnival in theme was given at the St.
Louis Woman's Club yesterday afternoon to introduce to society Miss Dorothy Louise Kamp, daughter of Frederick August Kamp, 4722 Lindell boulevard,
and the late Mrs. Kamp.

Mr. Kamp and his daughter received the 200 guests in the Indian room where windows were draped with pale blue silk as a background for masses of wood-wardia fern and great urns filled with white gladiolas, white roses and daisy chrysanthemums. The debutante wore the gown in which she served as a maid of honor at the Velled Prophet ball early in the season. Of pastel pink tulle combined with black velvet the gown has a velvet bodice secured with corded velvet straps and is cut to a heart-shaped revealed shoulder neckline. Ruffs of pink tulle cover the upper arm, and the tulle skirt, held out by five crisp tulle underskirts, is trimmed with ruching in a circular design.
Miss Kamp carried an old fashioned bouquet of baby orchids, gardenias and bouvardia.

The guests passed through the lounge, which was filled with gift flowers sent the debutante, into the Colonial dining room where they donned gay paper hats and were given carnival favors by way of bolts of serpentine streamers, confetti and noise makers. From the ceiling hung several thousand pink and white balloons. The pink note was repeated on the tea table, where pink carnations bordered a large mirror plateau on which stood large pale blue candles. At either end of the table silver candelabra held lighted white tapers.
The pillars and walls of the long dining room were draped with smiles.

Miss Kamp attended Mary Institute and was graduated from Berry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill.

Invitations for Debut.

Invitations have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Blake Clinton Howard for the debut reception of their daughter, Miss Elsie Margaret Howard, to be given Saturday afternoon, Dec. 21, at the Howard home, 5290 Westminister
Place, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

ENGAGEMENTS AND WEDDINGS

Elsa Zeibig Brown to Make Debut at Cocktail Party At Parents' Home Today

MISS ELSA ZEIBIG BROWN will make her debut this afternoon at a cocktail party to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Young Brown, at their home in the St. Louis Country Club grounds. About 150 members of the debutante set are expected to attend.

The debutante and her parents will receive at one end of the long living room in a floral setting of white and yellow chrysanthemums. The buffet table in the dining room will be decorated with yellow roses.

Miss Brown will wear a white and coral crepe dinner gown designed with a coral yoke which has a high round neckline and short sleeves. The skirt flares slightly from a tailored narrow belt. Mrs. Brown has chosen a long-sleeved purple crepe dinner gown.

Last night Miss Brown was guest of honor at a dinner dance given at the St. Louis Country Club by her uncle and aunt, Mr.
and Mrs. Thomas H. Wright, who are staying at the Park Plaza between seasons. They spent the summer at their home in Southampton, L. I., and will leave shortly for their new house in Palm Beach, Fla.

With Mr. and Mrs. Wright were
Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Olin, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Wright, and Mr.
and Mrs. George R. Wendling Jr.

At the debutante table in the above dining room, which was decorated with white flowers,
were Miss Stella Bixby, Miss Amy Dudley, Miss Ann Kelley, Miss Rosalee McRee, Miss Rebecca
MacMillan, Miss Dorothy Jane
Mahaffey, Miss Margaret Peters,

Thomas G. Rutledge, John S.
Leahy Jr., Adolphus Busch Orthwein, David P. Ferriss, John Brodhead Jr., John Wagner, Thomas dePew and Gayden Derrickson.

Among the parties still to be given for Miss Brown is the cocktail party at which she will share honors with Miss Nancy Scudder to be given Dec. 13 by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt Zeibig, uncle and aunt of both guests of honor, at the Zeibig home on Denny road in Kirkwood. The affair will precede the ball which Mrs.
William D. Orthwein II will give at the St. Louis-Country Club for her nieces, Miss Dorothy Jane Mahaffey and Miss Ann Kelley.
Mrs. Olin is planning a party for Miss Brown to be given later in the season.

Today's debutante was graduated from Mary Institute in 1939 and served as maid of honor at the Velled Prophet ball early this autumn. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. John Young Brown, 525 Clara avenue, with whom she spent the summer in Southampton, and the late Dr. Brown. Her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Zeibig, are former Velled Prophet queens.

Breakfast at Golf Club For Miss MacMillan

A BREAKFAST will be given at noon today at Algonquin Golf Club for Miss Rebecca MacMillan, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker MacMillan, by Mr. and Mrs. Wiley H.
Comstock, 669 Hawbrook drive.

Pink carnations, snapdragons and lavender heather will ornament the table. Leather com-pacts will mark the places of the young women guests, who will be Miss Rosalee McRee, Miss Stella Bixby, Miss Amanda Noel Thompson, Miss Dorothy Jane Mahaffey, Miss Irene Randolph, Miss Elsa

St. Louisans to Attend Opening of Metropolitan Opera Season in New York

By Frances Conant Richards

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.

THE opera season starts off Monday night and it remains to be seen whether the regular first-nighters will be entertained again this year with an acrobatic interlude in the red plush lobby. As style scouts, photographers, and ermines and shawls all collide, Mr. and Mrs. Gilson Gray, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Astors, Golets and Whitneys will be on hand as usual for another opening night at the old yellow brick Metropolitan Opera House. This year there will be extra interest added to the usual glamor, bravos and burrahs, as ardent opera followers will see the inside of the Metropolitan for the first time since it had its face lifted last summer.

Mrs. Vanderbilt will find her box this year, as always, in the Diamond Horseshoe, but upper tier boxes have been made way for more comfortable rows of seats. As the overture to Un Ballo in Machera starts at 8:30, lights will go up on a new gold damask curtain—a replica of the familiar cloth of gold that has opened for every opera since Caruso's debut there in 1903. When the Metropolitan Opera Guild, a special interest of Mrs. Gray's, gave a preview party there last Sunday night, souvenir squares of the famous gold curtain were sold by three young women, including Miss Sonia Stokowski.

When she lived in St. Louis Mrs. Gray lent a guiding hand to the children's symphony concerts as they first started off. She has kept up her interest in music for young people and will take her three children, Gertrude, Gilson and Charlie to hear the special performance of Carmen Dec. 15. Crown people will be allowed in the opera house on that date only if accompanying children, as the opera is being sponsored by the Opera Guild as a means of introducing young people to opera. Carmen will be given three times—once for New York children—again for New Jerseyites and then for a Westchester group. The children have been busy all fall making puppets and drawings and learning about the opera, as prizes will be awarded for these efforts in much the same way as when Mrs. Gray ran the Children's Symphonies in St. Louis.

St. Louisans in New York.

MANY St. Louisans were in town last week end after going to the Yale-Harvard game in New Haven. Miss Rosalie McCree and her cousin, Miss Maude Overall, were at the Junior League rooms in the Waldorf until Tuesday, when Miss Overall went to Boston to visit for two weeks and Miss McCree went to St. Timothy's in Catonsville, Md., to see old school friends before going back to St. Louis.

Just down the hall in the Waldorf were Miss Helen Stark and Miss Margaret Ann Imbs. They came East for a New York Thanksgiving, went to the game and were in New York for a few days early this week. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pettus were also at the Waldorf. They spent the week end in Boston with their sons, George and Eugene Jr., who are at Harvard.

Miss Betsy Lamy and Miss Barbara Griesedieck joined their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lamy and Mrs. Alvin Griesedieck at the Barclay last week end. The two young women, who go to the Sacred Heart Convent in Noroton, Conn., came to New York in time for the first Thanksgiving. On Saturday Miss Griesedieck and Miss Lamy went to Princeton for the Princeton-Army game with Nelson Gatch and George Whitelaw. Nelson Gatch was in New York for the week end from Williams and George Whitelaw from Amherst.

These two Thanksgivings are somewhat of a problem to people who live in Connecticut, where old-fashioned Turkey day is observed and work in New York where the holiday was celebrated Nov. 21. To New Yorkers with friends in the country it is easily solved by two celebrations. Miss Elizabeth Benoit had Thanksgiving dinner in the New York manner with the Ephron Catlins in their Park avenue apartment, and was in Connecticut for an old-fashioned country Thanksgiving this week.

Mrs. Catlin's niece, Miss Grace Wilson, daughter of H. Burgoyne Wilson, came from her school in Washington to spend the holidays with the Catlins. Others at the Catlins dinner Thanksgiving night were Harry Potter and his son, Harry Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinsolving and their son Lucien. After the dinner the three young people went to see "Louisiana Purchase" followed by a bit of night clubbing.

Miss Benoit is spending a long week end in Fairfield with her sister, Miss Agnes Benoit, and Mrs. Frances Burke. As is her custom, Mrs. Burke is giving a large hunt breakfast today after a brisk ride over the hillsides with the Fairfield Hunt. The beagle pack arrived early today by truck, the hunters rode up a bit later, and after everyone had a touch of Thanksgiving cheer in Mrs. Burke's epic and span red barn, the whole outfit set out after the fox.

Author's Night Celebrated.

WEDNESDAY night was Author's Night at the National Arts Club in Gramercy Park and Mrs. Edward M. Roeder and Mrs. Edward Roche Hardy, both one-time St. Louisans, were there for the final gala night of the November book show. She and her family live in the Gramercy park section quite near the club, in what was once Samuel J. Tildens' town house.

During November, Mrs. Hardy headed the hostess committee for the book show, which meant that she had to line up club members to be on duty there all month from 10 in the morning till late in the evening. For the last 35 years the Arts Club has set aside November as book month and exhibits about 2000 new books-of-the-year. St. Louis is represented by Irma Rombauer and Edmond Taylor, whose books are prominently placed on their respective fields of cooking and propaganda.

Authors' night was staged in the book-lined gallery at the back of the club. Each Wednesday night during the show, three authors come down to give half hour talks on their book in the exhibit. Last week Mrs. Hardy's son, Edward Roche Hardy Jr., spoke on his book, "The History of Christianity." He teaches Hebrew and religious history at the General Theological Seminary. Informally this was the keynote of Authors' night this week. Club members and their guests took their places in the book gallery to hear the first author. The evening got off to a lively start with the Rev. George B. Gilbert of Connecticut talking about his "Forty Years a Country Preacher." He regaled the audience with his English sense of humor and ended his talk by quoting surprising poetical epigrams found on old time Connecticut tombstones. Lawrence Abbott, who writes for the radio, was the next speaker. In discussing his book on music appreciation he compared three part form to a jam sandwich and a rondo to a club sandwich.

Alice Wahl Is Bride of John W. Mug

THE Blessed Sacrament Chapel of the St. Louis Cathedral was decorated with Easter lilies and lighted with ivory tapers for the wedding yesterday morning of Miss Alice Ellen Wahl and John Wheeler Mug. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edwin L. Wahl, 4445 Lindell boulevard, and the late Mr. Wahl. Mr. Mug's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Mug, 3873 Julian avenue. The Rev. Nicholas W. Brinkman, pastor of the Cathedral, officiated at 9:30 o'clock in the presence of the two families.

Miss Mary Wahl was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Mary Louise Mug, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Hugh Mug attended his brother as best man. Joseph Yoch, brother-in-law of the bride, was groomsmen.

John Brennan Wahl gave his sister in marriage. She wore white satin made with a modified V neckline, long sleeves, widened at the top, and a skirt that flared into a train. A coronet of lilies of the valley secured the full length tulle veil. The bride carried an ivory prayer book adorned with white orchids and marked with a shower of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were gowned alike in flame velvet designed similarly to the bride's gown. They wore small brown ostrich trimmed hats and carried talisman roses.

After the ceremony there was a small reception and breakfast at the Park Plaza. Mr. Mug and his bride will live in St. Louis on their return from a honeymoon in the South. She was graduated from Fontbonne College. Mug is a graduate of St. Louis University.

Anniversary Celebration. The twentieth anniversary of the founding of the national society, Daughters of the American Colonists, will be celebrated by the St. Louis chapter Monday, Dec. 9, at the annual founders' day luncheon to be given at 12:30 o'clock in the Tower Room of the Congress Hotel. The society, which has headquarters in Washington, was organized at the Planters' Hotel in St. Louis Dec. 9, 1920. After the luncheon a musical program will be given under the direction of Miss Ruth H. Smith. Mrs. Hugh David Parry is general program chairman of the program.

Lestine Ackerman To Be Wed Dec. 28

MRS. AND MRS. MORRIS H. ROSENTHAL, 5 University lane, have announced the engagement of Mrs. Rosenthal's daughter, Miss Lestine Ackerman, to Christian S. Hoefeld of New Orleans and Hollywood, Cal. The wedding will take place Dec. 28, after which Mr. Hoefeld will take his bride to Hollywood to live.

Miss Ackerman is a graduate of Mary Institute and Smith College and later spent a year studying journalism at Columbia University. Mr. Hoefeld attended Tulane University and the University of Virginia.

The prospective bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. Josephine Ackerman of Hotel Chase and the late Leopold Ackerman.

Dusenbury-Grandy Engagement Announced MRS. AND MRS. CYRUS WILEY GRANDY of Norfolk, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Caroline Selden Grandy, to Ensign Alexander Blair Dusenbury, U. S. N. R., son of Mrs. Frank H. Dusenbury of Mount Pleasant, Mich., and the late Mr. Dusenbury.

The bride is a niece of William Fitzhugh Randolph of Kirkwood, Eston Randolph of Ferguson and of Howard L. O'Fallon, 4543 Pershing avenue. Miss Rosalie Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Randolph, visited at the Grandy home recently.

Miss Grandy was graduated from Oldfield's School, Glencoe, Md., and from Gunston Hall, Washington. She made her debut at the Norfolk German Club two seasons ago and later became a member of the Junior League of Norfolk. Mr. Dusenbury was graduated from the University of Wisconsin and the University of Detroit Law School. He now is attached to the U. S. S. Wichita, stationed at Norfolk.

Visitor Returns to East. Mrs. Edward S. Johnson has departed for her home in Westfield, N. J., after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother, Mrs. John T. DeMoss, 5526 Maple avenue.

Mary Jane Goyer, Richard J. Zoernig Wed in Church

MISS MARY JANE GOYER became the bride of Richard Joseph Zoernig yesterday morning at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, which was decorated with red roses and white stock. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Andreas Goyer, at whose home, 7814 Gannon avenue, a reception was held in the afternoon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Richard Earl Goyer, 3850 Shaw avenue. She wore a white satin gown made with long sleeves and a lace yoke. Seed pearls were embroidered on the yoke and on the small cap which held the long tulle veil. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Miss Carolyn Saunders Goyer, her sister's maid of honor, wore a white taffeta gown and a red velvet bonnet trimmed with white plumes. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white stock. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Jules Pierre Guidry, another sister; Mrs. D. James Frain and Miss Margaret Pfiffner, were similarly gowned and carried bouquets of roses.

Mr. Zoernig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil L. Zoernig, 425 Alta Denas court, was attended by Julius A. Petersen as best man, Anthony J. McMahon, August Forst, Mr. Frain, Richard E. Goyer Jr., brother of the bride, and Walter Vornbrock.

A wedding breakfast was given after the ceremony at the Park Plaza for the wedding party and members of the families. Mr. Zoernig and his bride left for a honeymoon in the South. When they return they will live temporarily with his parents.

Miss Seabold Is Married to David S. Casey

Ceremony Takes Place at St. Rose's Church in Setting of White Flowers and Greenery.

THE wedding of Miss Alberta Katherine Seabold, daughter of Mrs. Delphine Seabold, and David Stodder Casey took place yesterday morning at St. Rose's Church. The Rev. C. B. O'Donnell officiated before 9 o'clock mass. The altar was decorated with lilies and chrysanthemums; standards of gladiolas and chrysanthemums and woodwardia fern ornamented the sanctuary. Mr. Casey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Casey of La Jolla, Cal., former St. Louisans. Dr. J. Albert Seabold gave his daughter in marriage. She wore ivory faille taffeta designed with long sleeves, a V neckline and a hoop skirt with a train, a Mary Queen of Scots hat designed of heirloom lace to secure her fingertip veil, and carried a colonial bouquet of white orchids, roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. James S. McClellan was her sister's matron of honor; Miss Eleane Casey of Jefferson City, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in lavender faille taffeta fashioned with short puffed sleeves, a high round neckline caught with a pearl pin and full skirts. They wore lavender and pink ostrich tips in their hair and carried pink roses and pompons. Mary Lucia McClellan, the flower girl, was in pale pink marquisette. She carried a matching hat filled with sweetheart roses and pink pompons.

James Casey was his brother's best man; Mr. McClellan, groomsmen, and August Matreel, usher.

After the ceremony there was a breakfast for the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan, 8 Arbor road, and at 10:30 o'clock an informal reception was held at the James S. McClellan home, 7 Arbor road.

Mrs. Seabold wore a crepe frock in two shades of blue and matching hat. Mrs. Casey was in maroon crepe and wore a soldier blue hat. Both wore gardenia corsages.

After a honeymoon in New Orleans and Memphis, Tenn., Mr. Casey and his bride will make their home at 7912 Kingsbury boulevard.

The bride attended the Academy of the Sacred Heart and has spent some time in California studying the violin. She is a sister of Miss Miriam Seabold of New York and Miss Joan Seabold. Mr. Casey was graduated from the St. Louis University School of Law. He is a member of the Sigma Phi Omega fraternity and is a brother of Mrs. John C. Casey and Mrs. August Matreel, both of St. Louis.

Schmidt-Lovejoy Wedding at Church

MISS SHIRLEY LOVEJOY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase Lovejoy, 7413 Augusta avenue, and Robert H. Schmidt, were married Friday night at Bethel Lutheran Church. The Rev. Albert J. Korts officiated.

The church was illuminated by candles marking the center aisle and arranged in three double tiers on the altar. White chrysanthemums and greenery decorated the chancel.

The bride wore white satin designed with basque bodice and full skirt which ended in a long train. Double rows of cording trimmed the shirred round neckline and at the top of the skirt where the fullness was introduced. Her fingertip tulle veil was held to a square lace coronet. She carried a round bouquet of white roses and bouvardia center centered with a pale orchid.

Miss Jane Luskling wore a deep rose petal satin gown designed like that of the bride's except for a short train. The bridesmaids, Miss Johnita Boss, Mrs. Eugene Hall and Miss Nancy Jeanne Schmidt, were in flesh-colored satin. Their headresses were wine-colored velvet bonnets with square brims lined with satin to match their gowns and trimmed with ostrich feather tips. They carried bouquets of pink roses and chrysanthemums.

Mr. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Charles Schmidt, 7525 Sanford avenue, was attended by Mr. Hall as best man and by Alfred W. Pauley Jr., Harry Shelton, Walter Smith and Shelton Stock.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Park Plaza. Mr. Schmidt and his bride left for Miami, Fla. When they return they will live at 29 North Court.

Miss Childs to Be Wed To Dr. Henry M. Morfit

MISS PHYLLIS CHILDS and Dr. Henry Mason Morfit, a former St. Louisan, will be married Dec. 27 at the Episcopal Church in Englewood, N.J., where the prospective bride and her mother, Mrs. Ernest Stauffen Jr., live. A reception will be held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stauffen.

Dr. Morfit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Morfit of Baltimore, recently completed a two-year internship at Barnes Hospital. He is a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. John C. Morfit, 7112 Wydown boulevard, and of Mr. and Mrs. T. Garrison Morfit, 5389 Pershing avenue. Before coming to St. Louis he was graduated from Johns Hopkins and did graduate work at Duke University. He now is working at a hospital in Charleston, S.C. Garrison Morfit of Chicago will be his brother's best man.

WEBSTER GROVES

MISS JULIA CHASE and Lawrence S. Fahle Jr. were married yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ross L. Chase, 444 South Gray avenue, Webster Groves.

The ceremony was read in front of the living room mantel, which was decorated with vases of white pumpkins and candelabra filled with lighted white tapers against a background of green ferns. The Rev. Ervin P. Inglis, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Webster Groves, officiated.

The bride wore a dusty pink wool street-length dress and a corsage of pale lavender orchids pinned at her shoulder. Miss Shirley Chase, her sister's only attendant, wore a frock of teal blue wool with a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mr. Fahle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Fahle, 7811 Well avenue, had as his best man, James Ehli of Rolla, Mo.

A small reception was held after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fahle will reside in St. Louis.

The engagement of Miss Chase and Mr. Fahle was announced only last Sunday, but meanwhile several parties have been given in their honor. Miss Marjorie Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Chapman, 235 Blackmer place, gave a spinster dinner Tuesday night. Mrs. H. Troy Tankersley, 636 Sherwood drive, was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday at Missouri Athletic Club and Wednesday night Mrs. Loren Cheneau gave a dinner for the engaged pair at her home in Bartmer place. Miss Elizabeth Schatz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Schatz, 404 Yorkshire drive, entertained a group of friends at a bridge party Thursday night and Friday afternoon Mrs. Earl Deane of Clayton honored Miss Chase at a luncheon at her home. Last Saturday afternoon Miss Betty Jane Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denmark Donnelly, 498 East Big Bend road, gave a kitchen shower and bridge party.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Gaston, 28 Algonquin lane, attended the Thanksgiving reception and dance at Western Military Academy, Alton, Ill., where their son, Robert, is a student.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cox, 213 Orchard avenue, left Wednesday for Gulfport, Miss., to stay 10 days. They will spend some of their time with their daughter, Miss Martha Cox, a student at Gulf Park College.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Welsh, 51 Rosemont avenue, have as their guest her sister, Mrs. William George Heege of Detroit, who will remain about three weeks. Wilson McAllister of Winnetka, Ill., brother of Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Heege, arrived Friday to spend the week end.

Mrs. Charles L. Byars, 434 Lee avenue, left Wednesday to visit relatives in Cincinnati. O. Robert Byars left Sunday for New York, where he will leave on the U. S. S. Arkansas for a reserve officers' cruise. Claiborne A. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lemoine Skinner, 100 Orchard avenue, also sailed on the Arkansas.

Miss Jane Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore Jr., 255 South Jefferson road, spent last week end with her parents. Miss Moore, who attends Western College for Women, Oxford, O., was accompanied home by her roommate, Miss Leah Chappell of Petersburg, Ind.

Cyrus S. Coup of Toledo, O., returned home Monday after a short visit with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stewart, 10 Algonquin lane. Last Saturday night the Stewarts gave a dinner in honor of Mr. Coup.

The Saturday Night Dancing Club held its second dance of the season last night at the Monday Club of Webster Groves. Mrs. Ralph Metcalf, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. V. P. Thompson, Mrs. T. S. ALTON

MRS. DAVID L. SAYLOR of 1500 Liberty street entertained seven guests at a dinner-bridge Wednesday evening. The party was one of a series being given by Alton and Roxana women who are interested in Bundles for Britain. Instead of clothing, each woman participant makes a cash donation.

Mrs. Spencer T. Olin of Fairmount was hostess at the first of the parties in Alton to promote the movement and Mrs. J. Platt Okie of Algonquin Terrace, Roxana, entertained at another.

Others who are interested in the movement and are planning parties or activities to raise money for the British are Mrs. Ben C. Vins and Mrs. C. W. Emmons, Alton, and Mrs. Horace Dale of Algonquin Terrace, Roxana.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kubernat have returned to Alton and taken an apartment at 825 Douglas street. Their marriage took place Saturday, Nov. 23, at Twelfth Street Presbyterian Church, and was witnessed by a large number of Alton and St. Louis guests.

The bride before her marriage was Miss Virginia May Stampe, daughter of S. L. Stampe of Brighton. She is a graduate of the nurses' school of training of St. Joseph's Hospital and is employed as assistant supervisor of the obstetrical department of Alton Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Kubernat attended Cleveland High School, St. Louis, and was graduated from Alton High School. He is associated with the East Alton plant of Western Cartridge Co.

Miss Irene Bordeaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph A. Bordeaux of 2816 Brown street, was married Thursday morning to John Louis Jehle at St. Patrick's Church. The Rev. John Drieschner of White Church, Mo., a cousin of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony.

Miss Frances Scott of Alton was maid of honor and Mr. Jehle had as his best man Marc Gruenfelder of Highland, a former classmate at Notre Dame University.

After the wedding, breakfast was served to members of the bridal party and the immediate families at Mineral Springs Hotel.

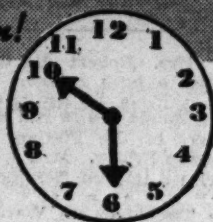

Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Jehle departed for Beloit, Wis., where they will reside.

JUICE ORANGES ARE BACK AGAIN!

Does it seem a long time since you got as much juice as you should from an orange?

Then cheer up! For Florida oranges are now back at your market—those plump, sweet, tree-ripened oranges famed for their extra juice.

Slip a knife through the tight, tender skin of one of these golden globes of goodness—and watch the eager juice spurt out. Notice how thin that skin is? That means more room for juice inside.

And, of course, the more juice—the more vitamins and minerals you get.

Any way you figure, Florida oranges are just about the biggest health-and-flavor bargain nature gives us.

Be sure to ask for Floridas when you shop today!
